Each member organization has a badge/pin. Some organizations require a member to purchase a badge and others include it

Fee paid to inter/national organizations per member to support overall sorority operations.

These funds support the member organization database, social media and other technologies.

A chapter may vote to support an activity/event/cause that is not included in the chapter budget and the expense would be assessed to the chapter. These funds are used when a chapter is asked to donate funds to other organizations and/or fundraising opportunities on campus. These monies fund member activities including programming, recruitment, chapter supplies and chapter operations.

An annual photograph is taken of each chapter's membership. This expense can be included in chapter dues or billed separately.

Fee paid to finalize initial membership in the organization.

This fee covers insurance-related costs for the safety of members, their guests and sorority property. Funds may also be used for other chapter expenses.

Fee paid to establish membership in the organization.

These funds are used to support Panhellenic operations. Examples of items that may be included in the Panhellenic budget are: chapter dues, chapter expenses, chapter property, chapter insurance, chapter security, chapter travel, chapter parking, chapter social functions, chapter philanthropy, chapter recruitment, chapter supplies, chapter operations, chapter insurance, chapter security, chapter travel, chapter parking, chapter social functions, chapter philanthropy, chapter recruitment, chapter supplies, chapter operations.

Parking is typically limited at chapter houses. Spaces are allocated by each chapter to members based on criteria set by the leadership.

Philanthropy fee: Each chapter has a philanthropy and some have local causes they support. This fee can be included in chapter dues or billed separately.

This fund is set up at the beginning of each term to pay for things not included in chapter dues. It may be used to purchase T-shirts, chapter supplies, chapter operations, chapter insurance, chapter security, chapter travel, chapter parking, chapter social functions, chapter philanthropy, chapter recruitment, chapter supplies, chapter operations.

Social functions not included in chapter dues are billed out individually based upon the cost of event(s).

These funds are used to support chapter property and physical plant. Often this is a one-time fee paid prior to initiation.

The entire membership has access to the house and thus the property is subject to a great deal of wear and tear. This fee is used to cover the cost of repairs and maintenance.

Special security staff may be employed to protect chapter property, members and guests. Typically, all members, not just those who are active in the chapter, are required to pay this fee.
